

PRACTICAL BIBLE BAPTIST COLLEGE
COURSE DESCRIPTION

Life Experience – Bus Ministry

1 Credit Hour

Description: A church should be all about serving God by serving people. This class will give you one credit for serving in the Bus Ministry of your local church for one year. We believe that there is a unique learning that is gained by actually serving people through the church in obedience to the commands of our great God. We believe that part of your college education should be actual service in a fundamental, Bible believing, KJB, Baptist church. Each of our life credit courses is intended to give you “credit” for ministries in which you have worked for at least one year.

Class: This course will consist of an interview with questions regarding your service to the Lord in the Bus Ministry.
